

IN MEMORY OF

SIR JAMES CLARK, BART., K.C.B., M.D., F.R.S.

To whom, by his permission, the former Editions were dedicated, and whose death, at the mature age of 82, was lamented by her Majesty and the whole of the Royal Family; and by the Medical Profession, of which he was one of the brightest ornaments.

He was not only a wise physician, but a man of sound judgment and quick perception. His hand was ever ready to help the unfortunate and to assist the deserving; and some who have risen to the highest professional eminence owe their success in a great measure to his counsel and advice during their early career.

He was much interested in Pharmacy, and through his influence the Pharmaceutical Society sent its delegate to take part in the formation of the British Pharmacopœia.

In Witness Whereof

SIR JAMES CLARK BART. K.C.B. M.D. F.R.S.

It is hereby certified that the above named person is a member of the Council of the Royal Society and is entitled to the use of the title of Esquire.

Witness my hand and seal at the City of London this 10th day of June 1884.

James Clerk
