

Handwritten text on a rectangular paper label, possibly containing a title or author's name. The text is partially obscured and difficult to decipher.

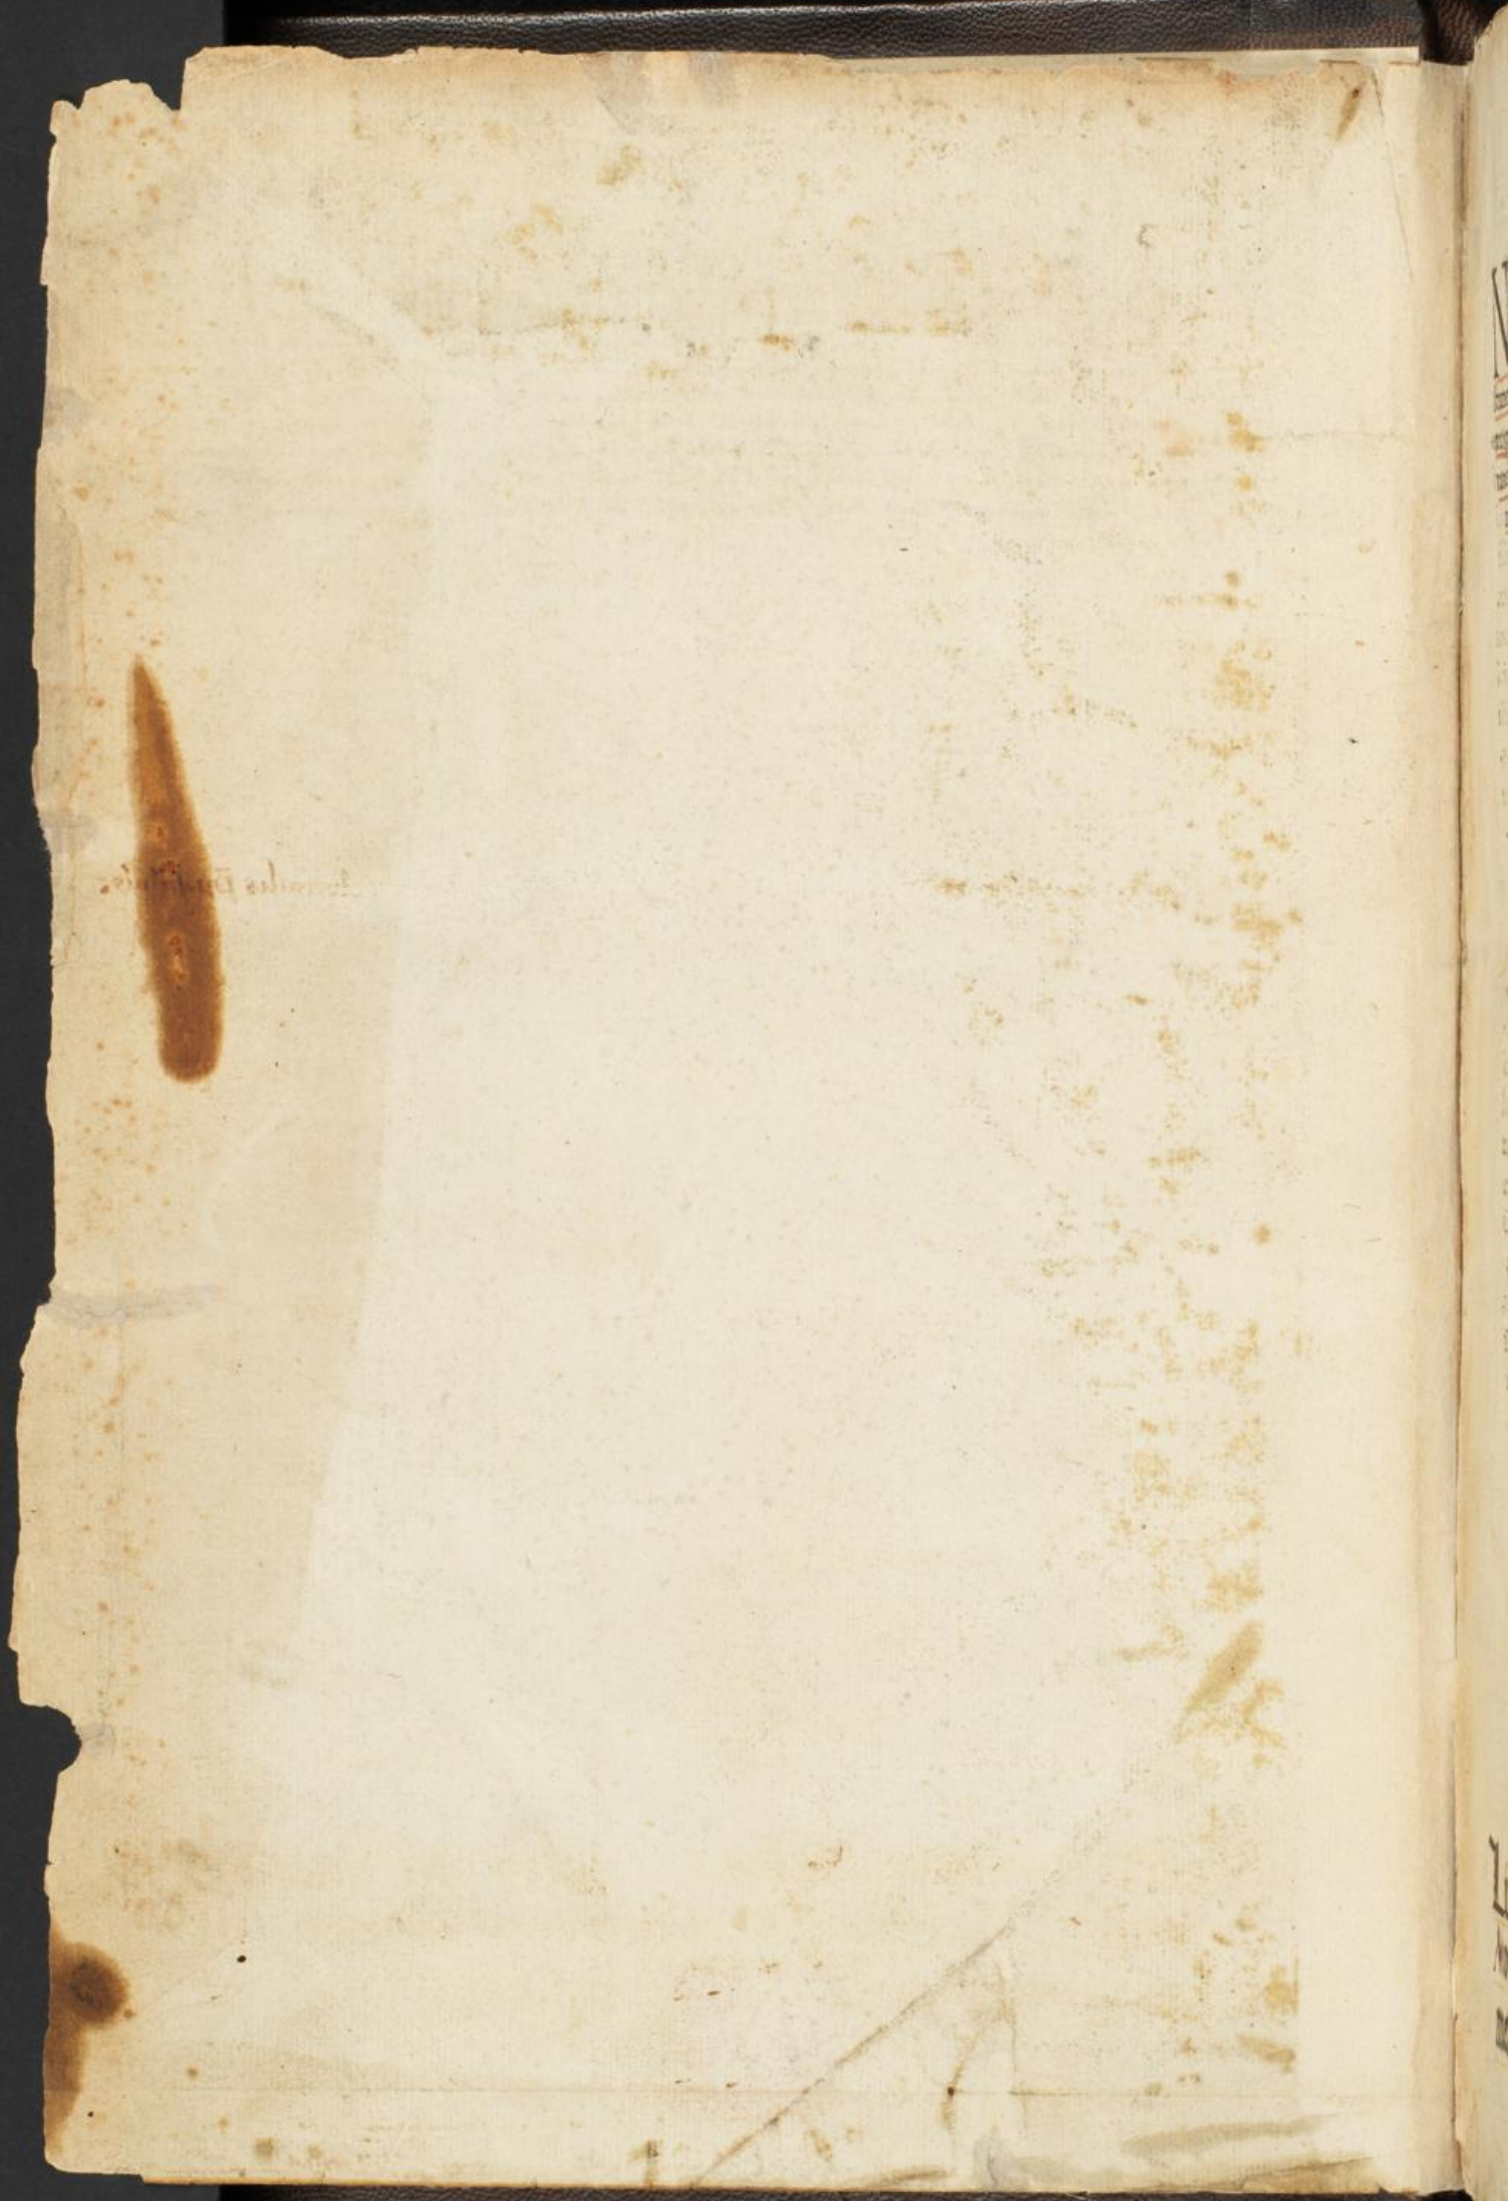

Duplices oportet inter patres / scilicet fidelium iudeorum / et innumerantium / de innumerantium patribus loquitur Christus Jo. 1. 11.
 ad iudeos contra ipsum innumerantes / vocans patres illos fuisse qui olim innumerabant super manna. Et de illis dicitur Ista Christus ibidem inquit de patribus fidelium iudeorum / qui non fuerunt patres horum qui Christo obtemperaverunt. sed patres vestri / qui Christo fidem et credidit. Et patres illos / scilicet innumerantium / maduraverunt manna / et mortui sunt. mortui eterna: non patres vestri. ~~Et madurabat spiritum~~ quasi dicit. Sic et vos moriemini / sicut patres vestri qui maduraverunt manna / et mortui sunt. Et qui manducavit hunc panem / sicut ego propono / scilicet fideliter / et comest in eternum.
 Sic primo. Chosintus Paulus. Et sic omnes sub umbra fuerunt. omnes mare transierunt. omnes per mare / et in mare baptizati sunt. omnes eandem spiritum maduraverunt. Et sic non spiritum maduraverunt patres vestri / ~~et sic~~ Ergo vos / scilicet estis patres vestri / non vestri: qui innumeratis contra me.

Faint, illegible markings, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.