

THE CANONESS.

Here we have a satirical glimpse into the devotion of a fair recluse; but good or bad, praying or playing, Death comes to put out the candles at last.

THE SOLDIER.

Strong and brave the soldier, but his two-handed sword avails not before Death's dart, and Death's drum summons many to their last master on the battle-field.

THE CANONESS.

Here we have a satirical glimpse into the devotion of a fair recluse; but good or bad, praying or playing, Death comes to put out the candles at last.