

47/3

Norwich & Norfolk

UNITED MEDICAL BOOK SOCIETY,

Library Room, Museum,

OPEN FROM 10 O'CLOCK A. M. TO 5 O'CLOCK P. M. DAILY.

Pamphlets and Periodical Works may be kept one week—Octavos two weeks—Quartos and Folios three weeks, not including the days of receipt and transmission:—and a fine of twopence per day shall be incurred by exceeding the period of retention. Country members may however avail themselves of the first conveyance, within a week, after the period of keeping a book shall have expired, without incurring a fine.

Members may have any two books, or any set of books, on application to the Librarian, such members defraying the expense of postage and conveyance.

Members shall be answerable for such books as may have been lost, or for any damage they may have sustained while in their respective possessions.

Dv 10 69

1752

Printed by Josiah Fletcher, Norwich.

J. Manning

Presented by the Executors of the late J. Manning

Coll 1870

