

Plan of the Lottery.

1. The price of each ticket is 2 Thalers (Six Shillings). The amount to be collected by the sale of tickets will not exceed the value of the Paintings and other Works of Art to be distributed.
2. The principal prizes are 200 Original Pictures by the first Artists valued at 35,000 Thalers. To these will be added a great number of Drawings, Watercolour paintings, Engravings, and other Works of Art.
3. The Lottery is under control of the Prussian Government and the Authorities will be present at the drawing.
4. The day appointed for the drawing of the Lottery as also a list of the prizes will be published in the Preussische Staats-Anzeiger, Coelner Zeitung, Augsburger Allgemeine Zeitung, and in the Buchhändler Börsenblatt.
5. Tickets may be procured by sending the amount to—Walbroehl Esquire of Dusseldorf, or to any of our Agents in the principal towns in or out of Europe.
6. Letters directed „Angelegenheiten der Verloosung zur Erwerbung des Jacobi'schen Gutes in Dusseldorf“ will be free of postage.
7. The person drawing a prize will receive the one corresponding with the number of his ticket.
8. All prizes not claimed within a year after the drawing of the Lottery will become the property of the Society of Dusseldorf Artists „Malkasten“.

Dusseldorf, June 1. 1860.

Counsellor of the Prussian Government

Wunderlich.

President of the committee

Euler.