

Preparing for the P R E S S

A Course of Architecture in two Volumes, in Quarto: Vol. the First, containing the Order of Vignola; with Commentaries, and the Figures and Descriptions of his finest Structures, and of those of Michael Angelo; several new Designs, Ornaments, and Precepts concerning the Distribution, Decoration, Matter, and Construction of Edifices, Masonry, Carpentry, Roofing, Lock-Work, Joiners-Work, Gardening, and whatever relates to the Art of Building: To which is added, a full Explanation of all the Terms of Art, alphabetically digested: By Monfieur Daviler, the French King's Architect. To this English Edition is added large Notes at the Bottom of each Page, out of the best Edition of Vitruvius.

Vol. the Second contains a Dictionary of Architecture; or, an Explanation of all the Terms used therein; the Mathematicks, Geometry, Mechanics, Hydraulicks, or Water-Works, Designing, Painting, Sculpture, Measures, Instruments, Custom, &c. Masonry, the Cutting and Preparing of Stone, Carpentry, Roofing, Joinery, Lock-Work, Glazing, Plummery, Paving, Searching, of Ground, Gardening, &c. The Distribution, Decoration, Materials, and Construction of Edifices, with their Defects. The Buildings, Antique, Sacred, Prophane, Rustick, Marine, Aquatick; Publick and Private: Together with the Etymologies, and the Latin Names of the Terms, with Examples and Precepts. The Whole relating to the Art of Building. Written in French by A. C. Daviler, the King's Architect. Done into English by several Persons well skill'd in all Parts of the Art, and in the Languages: Illustrated with about 120 large Copper Plates. Price of the two Volumes to Subscribers, one Pound five Shillings; in Quires a 7th gratis. Subscriptions are taken in by the Booksellers concern'd in this, and most others in Great Britain and Ireland.

P O M E T ' s

